Acknowledgment of Annual Giving Contributions

2014-2015

Society for Classical Studies

The Society for Classical Studies salutes its members and friends who made contributions to the Annual Giving Campaign during the last fiscal year (July 2014-June 2015). Donors who made gifts after June will be recognized in the 2017 Annual Meeting Program.

Members responded with generosity to the Society's annual giving appeals during the fiscal year that ended on June 30, 2015. Four hundred nine (409) donors, representing over 13% of all individual members, contributed $66,154, exceeding its goal of raising $65,000 during the year. We are very grateful that members are supporting Annual Giving at this rate and hope that eventually a third of the membership will do so as was the case with the Gateway Campaign between 2006 and 2012. For the current (2016 fiscal year) campaign, the Committee hopes to encourage at least 15% of the membership to make a donation.

Contributions to the Annual Giving Campaign are critical to our yearly operations. The donations cover costs which cannot be met by membership fees alone and are applied to the annual meeting and placement service, and, when designated by donors, programs such as the American Office of l'Année philologique and the TLL Fellowship. Annual Giving donations also provide more resources for the ambitious goals established during our recent strategic planning process, including our efforts to advocate for classics and all the students and teachers in the field and to share our enthusiasm for our discipline. We urge you to join last year's donors by returning your Fall 2015 annual giving appeal response card or by making a contribution through our secure web site: <https://app.etapestry.com/hosted/classicalstudies/AnnualGiving.html>. Donation cards are available at the Society's display table in the registration area.

The members listed below made contributions to the Society in one or more of the following ways: (1) online at the URL above, (2) in response to the Fall 2014 annual giving appeal, (3) along with payment of dues for 2015, (4) along with payment of registration fees for the 2015 annual meeting, (5) at the meeting itself, or (6) in response to the Spring 2015 appeal. The Fall and Spring annual giving appeals continued our recent practice of permitting members making donations of $250 or more to use their gifts to honor a revered teacher. Please note that not all qualifying donors chose to make such a designation.

The SCS has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of this list. Please call the SCS office at 215-898-4975 or email blistein@sas.upenn.edu if you have questions or if you find an error.

Note: In 2014 the Society published a report on the Gateway Campaign that described its history and the projects it is now funding. It also contained the names of all contributors to the Campaign as well as lists of donors to the “Friends” funds established to honor eminent classicists. Printed copies of this report are available from the Society office, and it can also be downloaded from the Society’s web site: <https://classicalstudies.org/sites/default/files/ckfinder/files/AckBookWeb.pdf>
