Reading the Gospel of St. Mark In Greek: A Beginning
Norbert H. O. Duckwitz

Reading the Gospel of St. Mark In Greek: A Beginning empowers students to read and appreciate the Gospel of Mark and biblical Greek. The introduction presents a summary description of the alphabet, pronunciation, accents, and grammar, making simple and brief comparisons between English and Greek. The Greek text is accompanied by same-page vocabulary and notes, which allow for rapid reading, comprehension, and retention.

Features:
- Entire text of St. Mark’s Gospel
- Running vocabulary and notes
- Introduction to Greek alphabet, accents, pronunciation, cases, tenses, and moods
- Grammatical appendix
- Glossary

Norbert H. O. Duckwitz is a professor of Classics at Brigham Young University. He received his PhD from the University of Colorado, Boulder, his MA from Harvard University, and his BA from Brigham Young University.