

SOCIETY FOR CLASSICAL STUDIES

ΨΥΧΗCΙΑΤΡΟCΤΑΓΡΑΜΜΑΤΑ

FOUNDED IN 1869 AS THE AMERICAN PHILOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

DAVID D. AND ROSEMARY H. COFFIN FELLOWSHIP FOR TRAVEL IN CLASSICAL LANDS

for secondary-school teachers of Greek or Latin

ABOUT

The Fellowship is intended to recognize secondary-school teachers of Greek or Latin who are as dedicated to their students as the Coffins themselves by giving them the opportunity to enrich their teaching and their lives through direct acquaintance with the classical world. It will support study in classical lands (not limited to Greece and Italy); the recipient may use it to attend an educational program in (e.g. American Academy, American School) or to undertake an individual plan of study or research. It may be used either for summer study or during a sabbatical leave, and it may be used to supplement other awards or prizes. Because of the pandemic, the fellowship winner in 2022 will be allowed to defer the award if necessary. The amount of the award for 2022 will be $3,500.

REQUIREMENTS

- must have taught Latin or Ancient Greek at the secondary level (grades 9-12) in North America as a significant part of their academic responsibilities for three years out of the five prior to the award
- must demonstrate of active interest in the profession & professional development
- recipients must file a written report following their program for use by the Society

APPLICATION

- a curriculum vitae
- a statement of how the Fellowship will be used and how it will further the applicant's teaching
- three letters of recommendation, at least one of them from the applicant's chair or principal, and at least one from a former student

DUE BY 5:00 PM (EST) FEBRUARY 17, 2022

For more information and to apply: <https://bit.ly/2PA4GA3>