

Graduate Student Director-at-Large

3 candidates, 1 to be elected via ranked choice voting.

The graduate student Director will serve a two-year term from January 2023-2025.

Candidates must be graduate students at the time of nomination and election. It does not matter if the graduate student elected graduates while in office.

The Director will be a full voting member of the Board of Directors and will represent the interests of graduate students in all matters, liaising closely with the Graduate Student Committee. This Director may read first round abstract submissions for the annual meeting along with other Directors-at-large but is not required to do so.

Once elected in 2023, the graduate student will serve ex officio on the Nominating Committee and the Graduate Student Committee.

The Director will receive full reimbursement for participation in all board meetings, including at the annual meeting, once we start to meet in person again.

The Director will receive non-profit finance training.

Contingent Faculty Director-at-Large

3 candidates, 1 to be elected via ranked choice voting.

The first Contingent Faculty Director will serve a two-year term from January 2023-2025, though the next person elected will serve a three-year term. This ensures staggering between the graduate student and contingent faculty position.

Candidates must be contingent at the time of nomination and election. It does not matter if the employment status of the director changes while they are holding office.

The Director will be a full voting member of the Board of Directors and will represent the interests of contingent faculty in all matters, liaising closely with the Contingent Faculty Committee. This Director may read first round abstract submissions for the annual meeting along with other Directors-at-large but is not required to do so. The Director will coordinate the Contingent Faculty grant, including soliciting applications and selecting awardees as part of a 3-5 person panel made up of other directors-at-large and members of the Committee on Contingent Faculty.

Once elected in 2023, the contingent faculty Director will serve ex officio on the Nominating Committee and the Contingent Faculty Committee.

The Director will receive full reimbursement for participation in all board meetings, including at the annual meeting, once we start to meet in person again.

The Director will receive non-profit finance training.

Director with Special Responsibility for Equity

3 candidates, one to be elected.

Will serve three-year term from January 2023-2026

The main role of the Director, who will be a full voting member of the board, is to promote diversity, inclusivity, and equity (DEI) in all SCS activities. The EA is expected to communicate concerns for DEI with the Board of Directors; encourage discussion with the Board about these concerns; and consult with the Committee on Professional Matters to obtain an accurate understanding of topics and data relating to DEI across the organization. The EA will not take the place of, or work at cross purposes to, the Committee on Professional Ethics. The EA will not oversee complaints arising at the annual meeting, which will be addressed to the Ombuds and the cognizant committees at the meeting. The EA ensures that there is a dedicated person, identifiable to all, to help make the SCS a more diverse, inclusive, and equitable organization across its operation, divisions, and programs.

The Director, once elected, will serve as ex officio on the Committee on Diversity in the Profession, and advise the Nominating Committee.
